5 Steps to Find the Right Clothes for YOU

Step 1: Give Yourself Permission

1. What is keeping you from wearing what you really love? Did someone tell you you shouldn't wear that? Why? Is it true? Do you agree?

Step 2: Know What You Love

1. Pull out 5 different types of tops you love and evaluate them (tees, sweater, blouses).
2. What is it about them that makes you feel so great?
3. Is it the color? The fit? The way it highlights or downplays certain parts of your figure? The fabric? The neckline? A specific detail? The pattern? Color combination?
4. Is there anything you'd change about it?

Step 3: Know What You Don't Love

1. Pull out 5 different types of tops you DON'T love and evaluate them (tees, sweater, blouses).
2. What is it about them that makes you feel so great? Ask the question out loud. "Why don't you like that _____?"
3. Is there something you could change to make it a yes? That's a detail you don't like!

Step 4: Compare Similar Items

1. Pull out two nearly identical items: but one of them you love and one of them you don't.
2. What are the shared details you love about these items?
3. What are the differences?

Step 5: Don't Settle

1. What are your non-negotiables?
2. Put them in order of most to least important.
3. Where are you willing to compromise?
